

Class of 2010 Project Grad Cookbook Order Form

Time will fly quickly and soon, the anticipation and excitement that surrounds graduation will be upon you and your son or daughter. Project Graduation, a night to honor our graduates in a safe environment, will be an evening filled with entertainment, food, activities, food, door prizes and, would you believe it, even more food!

In order to raise funds for this spectacular event, we have put together a Class of 2010 Cookbook. This book features over 300 delicious recipes as well as photos and other special touches to make this a memorable keepsake for your child and your family.

This cookbook will make a wonderful addition to your kitchen and to the kitchens of every grandma, grandpa, mom, dad, aunty, uncle, sister, brother, niece, nephew, cousin, friend, neighbor, colleague...you get the picture. Also remember... Christmas is just around the corner. ☺

Books are available through presale only and are in limited supply. Purchase multiple copies knowing that each book you buy will help create a lasting memory...a once-in-a-lifetime extraordinary event for your senior. Mahalo nui loa for supporting the Class of 2010!
